

V
E
R
T
I
C
A
L

Nature of the construction industry means general contractors in thriving industries are being proactive in assessing contracts for supply-chain and workforce issues.

2021 CONSTRUCTION TRENDS

Insights from Roy Wagner, Leader of Michael Best's Construction Law Group

RETHINKING OFFICE SPACE

Employers are considering flexible office space to allow for remote work and reduced expenses.

COVID-19 MAGNIFIED TECHNOLOGY

A trend prior to the pandemic, web- and cloud-based software, drones, GPS to track people and equipment, and other tech is more important than ever.

UPS & DOWNS

"Like a lot of the economy, there were winners and losers."

Industrial construction and infrastructure will thrive

Less retail, hospitality and entertainment construction in the short-term, with some long-term declines

